

Requirements of Campers: A willingness to learn

Activities Included: Camps allow students to make friends from around the state and participate in recreational activities and programs and experience what the police academy is like.

Description: For more than 30 years the Indiana State Police has offered young people an exciting look at law enforcement and the criminal justice system through youth camps. The camps help students gain respect for themselves and others through programs, which demonstrate the rewards of hard work and dedication.

They learn teamwork skills while gaining self-confidence. The camps and programs teach students that discipline is a prerequisite in gaining self-respect, and self-respect is the first step in gaining the respect of others.

For more than 30 years, the Indiana State Police has offered young people an exciting, up-close look at law enforcement and the criminal justice system through its youth camps. The camps help students gain respect for themselves and others through programs, which demonstrate the rewards of hard work and dedication.

Camps are held at universities around the state and offer campers a unique glimpse of campus life. Each program includes well-balanced meals and comfortable sleeping facilities. Camp staffs are hand-picked, responsible law enforcement personnel, who have committed themselves to preparing today's youth for their futures.

Camps are made possible through the support of the Association of Indiana Troopers, Indiana District Optimists, Indiana State Police Alliance, Indiana Troopers Association, Jaycees, Kiwanis International, Lions Clubs of Indiana and the Pacers Foundation.

Law Camps

Sponsored by Indiana Lions

- Vincennes University

Law Camps give students entering the 7th and 8th grades a behind the scenes look at the criminal justice system. The four-day co-ed camps offer a more advanced look at law enforcement. Police officers staff the co-ed camps and programs include spectacular demonstrations by Emergency Response Team members, Bomb Squads, Underwater Search and Rescue Teams and police dogs. Campers meet peers from around the state, participate in recreational activities and leave with a greater understanding of the police field.

These leadership camps are co-sponsored by the Lions Clubs of Indiana and scholarships are available. Lions of Indiana also donate their time and supplies necessary to make sure the kids have a
